

"Speaking for all" School Workshops

Why should students join?

Students will be coached by professional public -speaking trainers or current content creators to learn English through interactive exercises, such as:

- Content research, creation and management
- Learn voice-over skills and try to talk like a YouTuber
- Learn to engage and interact with followers

"Speaking for all" School Workshops

Takeaways

Students can

- Explore different topics concerning popular culture
- Learn by practices, acquire fundamental skills and techniques of public speaking
- Be more equipped in virtual communication setting

"Speaking for all" School Workshops

October to December 2021
February to July 2022
(one session: 2 hours)

At the premises of participating schools

80 S1 to S6 students